

CREATIVE

HEALTH

FOR

A practical case study for climate adaptation practitioners

CLIMATE ADAPTATION

Thank you to Green Futures Network for bringing this community together.

Your Engagement

Overview

|                      |                       |                     |
|----------------------|-----------------------|---------------------|
| Total participants ? | Active participants ? | Total submissions ? |
| 52 👤                 | 41 👤                  | 121 🗨               |
| Accuracy ?           | Reactions ?           |                     |
| 0% ✓                 | 13 🍌❤️                |                     |

There was never a right answer.

Lots of sleepy sloths.
It was a Monday after all.

What's your energy level today?

4 / 22 Pin on Image

Active participants ?

34/52 👤

Total submissions ?

34 🖱

Reactions ?

🍌❤️ 2

What's your role in climate adaptation?

|                                                     |                                                                   |                                                                |
|-----------------------------------------------------|-------------------------------------------------------------------|----------------------------------------------------------------|
| Linking research and practice                       | Researcher                                                        | Communicating about it                                         |
| Work for local authority                            | Encouraging changes in behaviour                                  | Researcher                                                     |
| Empowerer                                           | Project management, connecting the dots                           | Research for public health                                     |
| Cultural co-operations manager                      | Helping decarbonise surface transport through electrification     | Researching it                                                 |
| Planning policy development                         | Connector . Ecosocialist. Public servant                          | Supporting the successful delivery of our NHS Trust Green Plan |
| Concious of how to be be responsible in my job role | Trying to understand the issue and what stakeholders need to know | Driving the net zero and adaptation agenda                     |
| Work alongside communities                          |                                                                   | Researcher                                                     |

pagination

5 / 22 Open Ended

Active participants ?

31/52 ?

Total submissions ?

45 ?

Reactions ?

0

What's your role in climate adaptation?

|                                                     |                                                                   |                                                                |
|-----------------------------------------------------|-------------------------------------------------------------------|----------------------------------------------------------------|
| Linking research and practice                       | Researcher                                                        | Communicating about it                                         |
| Work for local authority                            | Encouraging changes in behaviour                                  | Researcher                                                     |
| Empowerer                                           | Project management, connecting the dots                           | Research for public health                                     |
| Cultural co-operations manager                      | Helping decarbonise surface transport through electrification     | Researching it                                                 |
| Planning policy development                         | Connector . Ecosocialist. Public servant                          | Supporting the successful delivery of our NHS Trust Green Plan |
| Concious of how to be be responsible in my job role | Trying to understand the issue and what stakeholders need to know | Driving the net zero and adaptation agenda                     |
| Work alongside communities                          |                                                                   | Researcher                                                     |

pagination

What's your role in climate adaptation?

|                                                                                                                                                                              |                                                                                                      |                                            |
|------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|--------------------------------------------|
| Concious of how to be be responsible in my job role                                                                                                                          | Trying to understand the issue and what stakeholders need to know                                    | Driving the net zero and adaptation agenda |
| Work alongside communities                                                                                                                                                   | Highlighting & addressing health impacts of climate change                                           | Researcher                                 |
| Leading the ACE climate resilience programme at Julie's Bicycle, have been working with creative sector and beyond to explore creative approaches to adaptation within place | Local council                                                                                        | Gardener with kids in my street            |
| Consultant - local authorities public sector                                                                                                                                 | Human, influencing from public health                                                                | Climate emergency officer                  |
|                                                                                                                                                                              | architect, helping individuals and communities adapt their environment to a rapidly changing climate | Wellbeing climate support                  |
|                                                                                                                                                                              |                                                                                                      | Climate comms work                         |

pagination

Interactive Reflection

Submit — Vote — Result

|                                                                                                                             |                                                    |                                                                           |
|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|----------------------------------------------------|---------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| Where could this help in your work? (14)                                                                             | What barriers are you trying to solve? (18) | What type of support would be most useful? (10)                    |
| Community and currently disengaged people engagement 6                                                                      | Helping people see things differently 7            | Which narratives connect & enable system changes/actions the most 3       |
| Engaging with stakeholders & communities 6                                                                                  | Arts being undervalued 4                           | Community cohesion 2                                                      |
| Getting colleagues engaged through creativity, particularly where they don't feel climate action is part of their portfolio | Better engagement 3                                | Sharing resources and processes so we don't have to all do it ourselves 2 |
|                                                                                                                             | Climate action needs 3                             |                                                                           |

← Previous Next

19 / 22

Idea Board

Active participants ?

29/52

Total submissions ?

42

Reactions ?

5

What type of support would be most useful? 10

|                                                                     |                                                                                 |                                                                                           |
|---------------------------------------------------------------------|---------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| Which narratives connect & enable system changes/actions the most 3 | Community cohesion 2                                                            | Sharing resources and processes so we don't have to all do it ourselves 2                 |
| Capacity support 1                                                  | Can take quite a lot of confidence to try and get some stakeholder groups ... 1 | This research and more like it. There is a marked reluctance to see the arts as a ke... 1 |
| Step by step guidance on how to host a workshop 1                   | Idea sharing with different approaches 1                                        | Support to wide-based roll-out 1                                                          |
| Facilitation 0                                                      |                                                                                 |                                                                                           |

Where could this help in your work? 14

X

Community and currently disengaged people engagement

6

Engaging with stakeholders & communities

6

Getting colleagues engaged through creativity, particularly where they don't fe...

5

Narrative building around solutions

5

A different way of working with young people

4

Making climate research more accessible and democratic

4

Engagement and "buy in"

4

Build rounded evidence base on climate impacts which includes qualitative lived ...

2

Engaging communities, through libraries, and other settings

2

The structured approach looks very helpful

1

Integrating health, aesthetics, and creative methods

1

Different people to the fore

1

Where could this help in your work? 14

X

Narrative building around solutions

5

A different way of working with young people

4

Making climate research more accessible and democratic

4

Engagement and "buy in"

4

Build rounded evidence base on climate impacts which includes qualitative lived ...

2

Engaging communities, through libraries, and other settings

2

The structured approach looks very helpful

1

Integrating health, aesthetics, and creative methods

1

Different people to the fore

1

Supporting young professional musicians in being engaged in their community

1

Being together across communities

0

What barriers are you trying to solve? 18

X

Helping people see things differently

7

Arts being undervalued

4

Better engagement

3

Climate being villainized, needing to focus on health as a pathway to solutions

3

Making it relatable especially with politics

3

People and organisational capacity to collaborate

2

Communicating, listening, and curating in non confrontational ways across differen...

2

Views on what is 'acceptable data'

2

Engagement without fear

1

Disengagement

1

Engagement with those who think in a black and white manner

1

Action governmental and individual

0

What barriers are you trying to solve? 18

X

Communicating, listening, and curating in non confrontational ways across differen...

2

Views on what is 'acceptable data'

2

Engagement without fear

1

Disengagement

1

Engagement with those who think in a black and white manner

1

Action governmental and individual

0

Intergenerational

0

Misinformation

0

Lack of engagement/interest

0

We are really trying to get people engaged in a way which helps them get active in th...

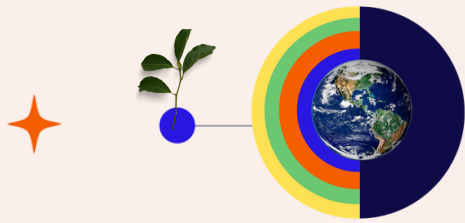

0

Tackling dis/misinformation

0

There is a flood of misinformation and so looking for creative and accessible ways ...

0

HOW CAN WE COLLABORATE?

PILOT PARTNERSHIP

ART FOR CLIMATE RESILIENCE PILOT
In-person program partnership and licensing

HYBRID TRAINING

FACILITATOR PACKAGE FOR ORGANIZATIONS
Hybrid cohort style, optional in-person

DIGITAL COURSE

VIRTUAL SELF-GUIDED TRAINING
Self-paced learning journey, optional group calls

GET THE ZINE

artforclimateresilience.com

JOIN OUR WAIT LIST

CREATIVITY FOR PLANETARY HEALTH

AR+E COMETS is a global health studio addressing the complexities of health for human and planetary resilience.

Your feedback makes this message connect further.

RYN DELPAPA

AR+E COMETS Founder

Art for Climate Resilience Director

 @ryndelpapa

 hello@artecomets.com

 artforclimateresilience.com

 @artecomets