

What was the topic of a recent disagreement you witnessed or were part of in your context?

when to use word climate racism lab grown meat

objector 2 council nzwork hyper-local - local - ai dinner

climate change is a hoax politics is fashion fine art transport responses to extreme heat

How did the disagreement feel?

resolvable
tiresome entertaining but confusin fear anger at rabbit holes relieving perplexing curious activated fruitful uncomfortable depressing adult collaborative tense sterile broadening horizons polarising unsatisfying intractable

If possible, please share a positive outcome of that disagreement

Learning

Food for thought

Understanding of the wider context

illumination

I understood my position/myself better

we spoke about
something people usually hide from

connection

We have an ongoing
humorous dialogue
referencing this
disagreement

If possible, please share a positive outcome of that disagreement

authenticity

We both agreed on common ground.

How we could collaborate
on push back

I learned climate denial alive&well locally

Agreed to disagree

Perspective and
connection

A solution just about good enough for now (but currently highly sub-optimal)

What supports you to question yourself?

Argument and evidence

Healthy love of learning and progressing.

Active listening to others

Knowing that I am not just one thing

Conversation with others

A desire to strive to be better

Time

trust in the other's good faith

What supports you to question yourself?

Interrogate my intuition and think of the
counterargument

There are always multiple issues to fight for/against

Remembering that right/wrong is just one way of knowing myself

desire to connect

Having time to reflect and enhance my self-
awareness

Examining my own biases remembering all the times I've been wrong in the past!

Solutions always start
from internal thoughts

What supports you to question yourself?

Support more vital

Remembering that each of us are only ever trying to meet our needs.